

A GREAT EFFORT
FOR A GREAT HOSPITAL.

A stylized illustration of a beehive, rendered in yellow with black outlines and horizontal stripes. Several bees are depicted around the hive: two at the top, one on the right side, and one at the bottom entrance. The bees have yellow and black bodies and translucent wings.

THE DOME,
BRIGHTON.

NOV. 26TH & 27TH
1930.

The platform was a riot of flowers, and in the centre was the golden hive, which, with the touch of fairy wands in the hands of dragon-flies, and impersonated by Miss Jeanne Marie Ballard (daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Ballard) and Miss Pam Ellison, let loose those busy forces.

First came the ballet in the form of the Grasshopper Guards, their wings glistening in the limelight. These were the Misses Diana Allden, Pamela Beves, Barbara Bidwell, Pat Carr, Joy Ellison, Lalage and Sheila Fitzmaurice-Kelly, Brenda Hoare, Dora Le Brasseur, Ann Lockhart, Pat Maurice, Joan Nye, Nanette Wolfe and Master Brian Beves.

CATERPILLAR CORPS.

Next came the cleverly produced Caterpillar Corps in green dresses, in which they crawled along in realistic style. They were represented by the Misses Joan Allen, Joan Baker, Pamela Blackman, Irene Brown, Phyllis Daffarn, Veronica Dubbin, Peggy Fisher, Geraldine Lane, Olive Newton, Doris Phillips, Guki Weiss-Ensor, Madge Woolley and Mary West.

THE BEE BRIGADE.

Then the golden hive doors opened and out poured the Bee Brigade in dresses of bronze gold, and with gauze like wings, to the effective music of Miss Jouanno's Orchestra with Miss Eva Baker at the piano. The Queen, admirably taken by Miss Patricia Fitzmaurice-Kelly, in ringing tones, then declared "The Hive is open"!

Members of the Brigade were: The Misses Carol Allden, Honor Bardwell, Betty Carr, Madge Comber, Daphne Hoare, Mary and Joan Reeson, Jean Robertson, Pat Vick, Diana Walker, Auriel Woodhouse, and Angela Wright; Masters Brian Graves, Ted Hoare, John Hughes, Harry and David Lyons-Smith, Peter Maurice and Dick Walker. Throughout this charming scene there was suitable music; and Miss Ethel Onslow received many congratulations.

Service that Satisfies.

If you are not already in the happy position of having your laundry dealt with efficiently each week, we venture to suggest that a Post Card or 'Phone call to us will put you in touch with a "SERVICE THAT SATISFIES."

There are many kinds of service, Domestic—Lip—Active—Tennis—but, whatever genre they belong to, unless they are a "SERVICE THAT SATISFIES," you are not obtaining full value.

The Semi-Finished Laundry, of 101, Conway Street, Hove, has built up its reputation for first-class laundering at moderate charges solely by establishing a "SERVICE THAT SATISFIES."

And not only have we a "SERVICE THAT SATISFIES" our customers by reason of the excellent way in which the work is done, but the satisfaction makes itself apparent when the bill is presented, for the extremely reasonable charges which you have to pay—only 2/6 per 12 articles and pro rata (all articles returned ready for use, table linen and all other necessary articles being starched)—combined with unfailing courtesy and attention, is but one of the attractive features of the "SERVICE THAT SATISFIES."

Our vans collect and deliver in all districts. 'Phone Hove 3582 or send a Post Card direct to the :—

FOREWORD.

 FEW years ago the Board of Management prepared a co-ordinated scheme for the development and enlargement of the Hospital. Work on this scheme has been carried out deliberately and of set purpose, and we have now arrived at the stage of providing new Operating Theatres. Work on these Theatres is well advanced, and it is hoped that they will be as near perfect as human ingenuity and experience can devise; their construction is long overdue. In 1929 no fewer than 2,621 operations were performed at the Hospital, this being an increase of 440 on the record total for 1928.

It is to help to defray the cost of these Theatres that this Bazaar is being held. We are confident that the public will support us. The question is often asked, "When will you cease begging?" The answer is: "Never, unless science fails to make any more strides." Our wonderful Honorary Staff, who give so freely and generously of their services, are entitled to the best we can give them within our means, and the interests of our patients demand that we should ever be abreast of the times.

Chairman, Royal Sussex County Hospital.
